NEW SUBSCRIPTION SYSTEM.

All subscribers to this book (except in a few cases) have guaranteed, as per their signatures on our agreement lists, their annual support to the "Guide." The subscription price is governed by the amount of matter to appear with name, etc., in alphabetical columns only, as per our rates on our lists, according to number of lines and type desired, the charge for same being set opposite signature of each subscriber. This constitutes the subscription price, and he, she or they are entitled to receive the "Guide" without extra cost, except small charge for delivery.

It contains an alphabetical list only of all individuals, firms, corporations and companies engaged in business in the various towns and cities represented in the book, for the year 1892; a list of city, county and State officials, and other information useful to all.

Publishers' Preface.

In presenting this, the second issue of the "Mercantile Guide" (New Business Directory, 1872 edition) to the general public, we desire to call attention to the following. We have endeavored to secure proper and correct information respecting all names, businesses and addresses appearing in this book, relying upon the efforts of a thorough and conscientious canvasser; but, in spite of this, mistakes and typographical errors will appear, especially in the publication of a new work, and we crave the indulgence of our subscribers should any such errors be found; we therefore take great pleasure in placing the second edition of the "Guide" before the general public.

As many towns and cities have been placed in this issue as we could possibly get in; but a new book will be issued very twelve months, additions being made to the work each publication. We are the sole owners of the Pacific Coast rights of this work (copyrighted) and its system of subscription, and we will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law any one infringing on our rights.

WARNING.—In every subsequent canvass agents must produce and show to all old subscribers their signatures in the list signed during the canvass of every issue, otherwise such persons representing themselves as agents of this publication and its system of subscription are frauds, and should be treated as such. All subscribers have signed yearly, guaranteeing their support during the life of the "Guide."

Tendering our sincere thanks for the generous patronage bestowed upon us, with assurances of further increase of information in the next issue, we remain,

Yours very respectfully,

MERCANTILE GUIDE COMPANY.

W. HARRISON WOODRUFF, President.
L. ED. PRATT, Vice-President.
